T 47. OPENING CEREMONIES/DEMONSTRATIONS

During or before the Opening Ceremonies phase of the Tournament and prior to commencing the Tournament, it is desirable for a demonstration of Taekwon-Do to be conducted. T 48. ITF-TAO UMPIRE COMMITTEE & TOURNAMENT COMMITTEE

The ITF-TAO Tournament Committee consists of the ITF-TAO Umpire Director, the National Umpire Director & Tournament host. In the event that the ITF-TAO Umpire Director is not in attendance the Tournament Committee will consist of the National Umpire Director & Tournament Host.

T 49. CONCUSSION/HEAD INJURY

The ITF-TAO Rules of Competition are designed to create the safest and fairest competitive environment possible for all competitors of all ages. In particular, with respect to concussion the ITF-TAO maintains a policy of strict safety through education, prevention and awareness. Prevention of concussion at the outset during competition is the priority. Concussion, as a type of traumatic brain injury is caused by a jolt to the brain.

Officials are required to be observant of the following tell tales signs and symptoms of possible trauma during competition (SCAT5):

Headache, nausea, drowsiness, blurred vision, ringing in the ear, confusion, dizziness, slurred speech or lag in response to questions, drowsiness, repetitive verbal questions or comments by the injured, lack of focus in the eyes, enlarged pupils, staggering/failing to remain standing and amnesia depending on the severity of injury.

It is the Centre Referees responsibility to carefully observe any potential signs of concussion (as listed above) after any kind of contact or fall during the event with the following procedure:

- 1) Stop the match.
- 2) Whilst calling the warning/foul accordingly observe for symptoms as listed above carefully.

TRADITIONAL • AUTHENTIC • ORIGINAL

- 3) If there is any doubt as to the above call Jung-ji (time stop) and move closely to the potentially injured competitor.
 - 4) Observe more closely and directly for symptoms whilst standing or kneeling directly in front of them, ask questions such as “how do you feel?” if there is any sign of disorientation ask direct (Maddock) questions such as “what venue are we in?”, “what did you have for breakfast?”, “what is the name of training school?”
 - 5) Any indication from the above that warrants further investigation immediately call the match and summon attendant medical support to take charge of the situation.
 - 6) Once Medical staff arrive and they have been briefed accordingly as per their questions, from that time the Centre Referee is no longer directly involved and steps aside with regards to the injured competitor. The attendant Medical Staff will then proceed with the appropriate protocols (e.g. SCAT5)
 - 7) If the competitor is returned to the ring after evaluation by Medical Staff and is cleared for further competition by Medical Staff (not just verbally from the competitor), it is the Centre Referee’s decision as to whether the competitor can go on in that division at that time. Once Medical staff have arrived, and the Competitor removed the Centre Referee must continue with the division so as not to cause further delay. Further, the Tournament Host is ultimately responsible for any further participation by that competitor for that day.

The above applies to any activity during the course of the Tournament, for example, during sparring and/or patterns (head injury due to fall).
